The following sketch is copied from the Burlington, Iowa, Gazette: "Henry Brots, a hero of the civil war, and a resident of Burlington for the past three years, passed away in Mercy hospital this morning at 12:15 o'clock.

The family residence was at 417 South Garfield avenue. He was born December 22, 1839, and was 80 years old at the time of death. He was a member of the Eighth Ohio Infantry in the civil war and had his right leg shot off in the battle of Gettysburg.

He conducted a drug store in Kansas City for a number of years and was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge in that city. Mr. Brots came to Burlington about three and one-half years ago and was united in marriage to Mrs. Emilie M. Trott. Besides his wife he is survived by two sons and one daughter by former marriage.

The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Prugh's chapel. Friends are invited to these services. Interment in Aspen Grove cemetery will be private.

The sad news of the sudden death of B. E. Frazier, of Cleveland, which occurred on Friday afternoon of last week in the lobby of the Hotel Cleveland, was a great shock to all Seville people, where he had many friends. Mr. Frazier was born on a farm near Seville and spent his boyhood days and several years of his married life in Seville before moving to Cleveland. The funeral was held from his late home on Prospect street, Cleveland, and his body was brought to Seville for burial on Tuesday afternoon, where he will rest beside his beautiful little daughter, Reba, who passed to the Great Beyond some years ago. A host of friends accompanied Mrs. Frazier with the body in the funeral car. The floral offerings were many and magnificent, showing the esteem in which Mr. Frazier was held. Mr. Frazier leaves a wife and two brothers, George of Medina; and Mert, of Seville, spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., to mourn his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse, parents of Mrs. Bert Frazier, have been staying with their daughter in Cleveland for a few weeks and were not able to come home for the burial of Mr. Frazier.

WHISKEY THAT'S COFFEE SELLS AT $8 A QUART

The fellow with an aggravated thirst is still a victim of misplaced confidence, if he has confidence in persistent vendors of "red eye." Eight Wadsworthites played sucker last Tuesday night.

A stranger entered a Wadsworth pool room and played several games with local sports. Later he invited one aside and gave him a drink of whiskey, and then offered to sell him a quart for $8. After a little dickering the stranger was to meet a crowd of eight on N. Lyman street with 8 bottles. He did meet them, handed each a bottle and took $64, cautioning them not to show the liquor till he had time to get out of town. Instructions were followed and later each found he had a quart of weak coffee.

SCRAMBLE VS. DIGNITY AMONG POLITICIANS

All that is necessary to bring to the surface all the old Republican political hacks in the country is to form a combine and make a promise of pie further down the road. Hardly recently and with a whoop invited all the "hungry and unwashed" to get in behind the "Big Tom-Tom," and the din has started.

Just stop and note the personnel of those who have so far promised to help him: Walter Brown, who has aspired to be the political boss of Toledo and northwestern Ohio for so many years, has been cast into the discard several times by an outraged public, but now that there is a new god to lead the hosts on eager search for the pie counter has come from his hiding and is begging for a new crown and robe.

Myron Herrick, of Cleveland, who has so often in the past led a forlorn hope from Cuyahoga and been ditched and reditched until his armor is badly tarnished.

Ex-Gov. Willis, defeated and dishevelled, doomed yet hopeful, his lightning rod always set up on the highest peak within his vision in the hope some stray flash of electricity may hit it.

Mayor Davis—laughing Harry—Maurice Maschke, Geo. B. Harris and C. A. Otis, all rallying to Harding's aid in Cleveland without as much "aid" as would be expected from a 12 year old school boy.

There is no color of a "call from the people to the Presidency" in the scramble that is now going on among Republicans the country over; the only dignity displayed is to be seen in the Democrats who would gladly lead the ticket are deferring to President Wilson.

BRYAN AGAIN PARADES; CHIP ON HIS SHOULDER

Bryan is to the front again with a fight on against President Wilson. Bryan isn't in good fettle unless he has a fight on with some one. It is charged against the Irish that if they fight with and overcome an enemy, at the first lull they'll start a row among themselves. Bryan must have considerable Irish blood in him.

Bryan is an extremist, i. e., he can't see any good in any proposition that don't have for its paramount feature the annihilation of some one or some thing; he can't see any good in the middle of the road. In his silver claims there was nothing that would satisfy him short of free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1; there could be no middle ground. For years silver did not hold up its end in that controversy, now it has overtopped his wildest dream. But Bryan having taken a stand, won't go forward and he won't recede. Same old Bryan of 1896.

JUST MAKE YOUR QUERY BROADER IF YOU'D WIN

The pastors of Cleveland, quite generally, are discussing the proposition, "What has your church done to influence public opinion?"

Such discussion is a short-sighted proposition, and the Cleveland pastors may as well understand it first as last. What does the public, the thinking public, care what a church has done on an abstract proposition of that kind? Nothing, if it stops to think. But—

If you make the proposition read, "What has your church done to influence public opinion in the right way?" then one will have something that will interest thousands. The trouble today rests right there not only in the church but in real business life. What has the church done, what has the real business man done, to influence public opinion IN THE RIGHT WAY? And when one gets the community, or the thinking individuals in a community, to studying this proposition as a whole something will soon be accomplished.

THE RED CROSS

Dr. W. S. Rankin, Pres. of the American Public Health Assoc. is making some very startling statements with reference to the physical and mental health of this great people: of the 110,000,000 citizens, 45,000,000 are physically imperfect, 15,000,000 die annually, 3,000,000 are in bed all the time, 1,000,000 have tuberculosis, 2,500,000 contract venereal diseases each year, 2 to 3,000,000 are cases of hookworm and malaria; only 37,500,000 are fairly healthy and 19,500,000 in full vigor. There are more persons in the insane asylums in this country than in all the colleges and universities. It is estimated also that the former cost more to maintain than the latter.

Doesn't it look as if about 40,000,000 of us might enlist to help ourselves and our 70,000,000 brothers to keep in better physical and mental repair?

The Smith-Hughes act, which promises so well in the way of county health boards and nurses having so far failed to act, the whole responsibility for public health is left in the patient arms of the Greatest Mother.

The Red Cross is ready to make its beginning. Miss Harriet Anderson, sent out by the Lake Division was in Medina last Wednesday to meet the Executive Committee and to arrange with them for the classes in Home Hygiene, the care of the sick and the prevention of disease. It was decided at this meeting to organize classes at once in Seville, Leroy and Lodi, these towns being easy of access to one teacher conducting classes in all three in one term. The course will have fifteen lessons of an hour and a half length, probably two each week. It is adapted to the needs of the mothers, teachers, housekeepers schoolgirls and business women.

This is what they may learn: How to prevent colds. How to keep the family well. How to recognize first symptoms of illness and what to do. How to feed the baby the best way. How to make a bed with a patient in it. How to bath bed patients. How to take temperature, pulse and respiration. How to treat accidents and emergencies.

GOOD OLD CHAMP CLARK KICKS REP. HOUND DOG

Champ Clark said, in his Jackson Day address: "During the six years of Democratic control more construction legislation was placed on the statute books than was put there in twenty-four years of Republican control."
